Often times when folks are inquiring about serving with SHJ the question arises concerning the ability to communicate with those we serve. It is always appreciated by the Deaf the effort made to communicate in their language and knowing a few basic signs can go a long way to building a relationship. No matter what the language barrier the example Jesus showed, and we should be imitating, is the language of love.

Let me introduce you to Dr. Dominique Evans. She recently visited us in Jamaica. Dr. D, as her friends call her, demonstrates the language of love in all she does. Dr. D came to Jamaica to address the young people at the JCSD graduation and spent time with us discussing ways we can better serve and reach the Deaf in Jamaica.

During the few days we spent together we introduced her to the folks at CCCD Adult Deaf Ed Center and took her to some places the Deaf socialize and work.

On Sunday Dr. Evans delivered an inspiring message to the folks at Top Hill Deaf Church in St. Elizabeth and we met with Pauline, the lay pastor, to discuss their needs.

The time we spent together was fruitful. She is a wealth of knowledge and it left me inspired. We have adopted her into the SHJ family and we are looking forward to serving with her. We will keep you posted on the exciting plans to further the mission of reaching the Deaf of Jamaica for Christ.

Serving With Love

This year I have been introducing you to the folks who are making a difference in this ministry. Those who are all in and serving with love. This time I want to introduce you to Cindy Kelley, she has been on our board for several years. She does not miss an opportunity to visit Jamaica and serve with the teams. Cindy has a heart for God and loves children and animals. I call her the “Energizer Bunny” she has an inexhaustible energy. She is a go-getter, you will find her pitching in wherever needed whether working on construction, serving a meal or giving a devotional. Cindy is a treasure and SHJ is grateful to God for bringing her to us. We look forward to serving alongside Cindy for many years to come.
